IN THIS ISSUE

WE REPORT ON 1981

No one can deny that 1981 was a momentuous year and as one looks back over the events which transpired, it must be obvious that the nations of the world are being gathered in preparation for the climax of the age. It is the belief of this Federation that these days are those referred to in the Scripture as 'the end of the age' and we are confident that in the near future, God's People will see and experience the Promised and much-needed Deliverance.

The Covenant Message

WHAT IS IT ALL ABOUT ?

'Happy is that people, whose God is the Lord.'

This magazine has to do with what is generally called, the Israel Identity Truth. And Israel Identity as the term suggests, draws attention to a people who may be identified with the name Israel which, in the first instance is a status - ruled by God - and secondly, the patronymic name which was given by God to Jacob who was also the inheritor of the Promises of God which deal with very material things - national things. Such statements of course, go against the teaching of Christianity today which in the main centres its belief on the importance of the individual whereas God's Word insists on giving priority to Almighty God. Thus, 'Let God be true' is the theme of The Covenant Message which presents evidence of His Hand in history and the assurance of His Intervention today.

The matter goes further however for within the twenty-eight pages of this journal, the editorial policy will be seen as providing as much evidence as possible in order to re-establish within the Anglo-Celto-Saxon and kindred European nations, a sense of purpose and direction coupled with a reverence for the responsibility which must come with identity. It may be asked here as to why so much effort should be put into telling this company of nations that they are Israel when in fact, the world accepts that the Jews are identified with this name? The answer is very simple. The world may accept this but the Jews are NOT the people to whom God made His Promises for as a people - and this term is very ambiguous for it presupposes a nation descended from a common ancestor - as a people, the Jews (by this name) only came into existence after 536 B.C., whereas the Promises of God were made circa 2,000 B.C. and to a nation. Nor are the Jews a nation but rather, a heterogenous people bound together by a faith and no such group ever figured in God's Covenant Promises. And while the Jews profess to keep the Law of the Lord, even the punitive or retributive clauses of this Law cannot be seen as working in them.

Conversely, within the Anglo-Celto-Saxon and company of nations, there is a great deal of embryonic evidence of the Promises while in their Constitutional life, each of the punitive clauses of the Law of the Lord may be seen in operation. And if two and two are added together, the answer is four. An answer which surely reveals that these people are Israel to whom the Law was given at Sinai.

Tragically today modern Israel is both gloomy and despondent. They have allowed others to usurp their name and will insist on wallowing in a 'gentile' state of mind and cannot see their own short comings. Yet in a time not too far off happy indeed will these people be when they re-discover that God is indeed their Lord.

We Report on 1981

PART I

As is usual, this January issue of The Covenant Message, should in the main, be a review of a few world events which over the past year have affected the Anglo-Saxon and Kindred people who are in every respect — and in spite of other claims — the true Israel people Almighty God formed for His Purpose of restoring the Earth to its rightful place within His Creation.

However, to comment on every event in the scenario of 1981 would naturally fill volumes so a few highlights, together with two thought-provoking articles, must of necessity serve to illustrate the nature of some of the problems which increasingly confronted Western Israel society. Problems which have demanded total involvement by The Covenant Message staff during the year through not only The Covenant Message but News of the New World and the two monthly cassette services in order to warn what would transpire if not only the Communists or Socialists — who are always obviously there — but “others” were not prevented from achieving their age-old ambition of setting up a One World Satanic Government in final opposition to Almighty God.

It does not of course require any great mental perception to see that civilised man is now steeped in technological and scientific thinking, filled with a blind faith in the power and efficiency of the machines he has invented and yet, among all the sciences there is also a science or theory on “how things are known”. This is called epistemology and admittedly is not an easy subject for it must be appreciated that the most difficult thing for the human mind to grasp is its own ignorance. Quite often, indeed more often than not, people think they know things which they do not, or imagine they know much when they know little. And this is the reason why it has been possible for a tremendous amount of manipulation — particularly in respect of the minds of men — and infiltration into every sphere of life. For an astonishing amount of so-called intellectuals are blissfully unaware that they are really ignorant and in their ignorance easily handled and misled.

It is possible to ignore or deny the source or the reason for their way of thinking but the essential fact of the present intellectual generation is that while the increase in knowledge has unquestionably been of benefit — a tremendous amount of harm has also been done. And this fact is ignored at our peril. The manipulation of the mind has resulted in almost irreparable damage and because knowledge has advanced in what might be called a careless and even irresponsible manner it has been at the cost of nature, morality, security and freedom — foundations needed by a sane society. Indeed, many of the advances have wreaked not only environmental havoc, but havoc in almost every activity — physical and mental — with which man is involved.

The infiltration into Western society of alien influences has also been extremely successful. Unfortunately, this cannot be denied. Nor can it be denied that more recently every effort to destroy Western culture has been intensified with amazing and horrifying results. This is more and more evident as more and more foundations crumble. And the real tragedy is that most people today while possibly claiming to be intellectuals but simply believing themselves to be intelligent human beings — blindly accept everything they hear or see provided in the main by a news-media which is itself a tool of a conspiracy which is actively destroying Western civilisation. Thus, it is not the increased knowledge doing the damage but the use to which it is being applied.

Naturally the news-media cannot possibly stand alone in blame for there have been many and varied 'tools' used by those who are determined on achieving their secret and insidious ambitions. Of finally setting up their 'kingdom' in opposition to the Kingdom of Almighty God. Thus their trail is a long and winding one indeed. Often hidden, often almost obliterated and often appearing in the guise of such "goodness" that it has caused many to back away convinced they are mistaken; that they must be wrong in attributing evil intentions where only 'good' appears.

It is this doubting which has also helped achieve the success of those who conspire. Indeed, how can organisations and institutions who are seen to be working for the benefit of others, be evil and corrupt? How can well educated, intelligent and God-fearing individuals be anything else than sincere? How can Christian governments and Christian politicians be secretly working against the citizens they represent? How can Christian churches and Christian ministers be party to the destruction of the very ones they are called to shepherd and protect? How indeed? Surely such claims and such statements must be wrong and must come from minds given over to wild imagination and perhaps — dare one even think this — to Satan himself?

Yet, such a charge cannot answer the evidence which almost daily multiplies and which, if placed side by side with world events, clearly show that strange forces are indeed at work. That strange things are happening and so much so that Western civilisation is crumbling with Christianity — for all its claims — unable or unwilling to do anything about it. Except possibly to continue to submit or advance the ideology of the "one-world" concept!

Recalling recently the work of Lady Queensborough known as a reputable international political investigator, the Don Bell Report noted that over fifty years ago she identified and described more than two hundred varieties of organised intrigue (conspiracy) all of which have been directed against all Christian nations and societies. These forms of conspiracy range from devil worship to International Banking but Lady Queensborough classified them all under one family name: Gnosticism. In other words, call it what ever one liked; political, moral, ethnic, economic, financial; in the final analysis, it is spiritual warfare! It is a conspiracy started by a "serpent" and continued through the ages in various forms, to fit the times and the circumstances.

The Rev. T. Robert Ingram writing on the same subject to the Don Bell Report stated: "... I think the roots of the conspiracy are not to be traced in terms of time, but rather the Gnostic Movement which has been in and around Christianity from the beginning . . . The Gnostic Systems are not simply permissive toward scandal, lawlessness and revolution but actually demand it in their scheme of salvation . . ." Then Rev. Ingram identified Humanism as the current form of Gnosticism. "Gnosis means knowledge . . . Gnostic religion — which claims to have superior knowledge of things spiritual — holds that 'salvation' is to be had by knowledge, usually secret and esoteric, but still knowledge . . . and it is amazing, almost frightening, to follow the razor-like sharpness of gnostic wit as it twists and turns through Scripture, assigning a most startling meaning to familiar phrases and sayings and words that simply turn truth upside down . . . An unbeliever might very well imagine, hearing a gnostic preacher, that he was listening to Christian Doctrine . . . We know that the devil, whatever he might be, is a liar, and the father of it . . . Here we have gnosticism in a nutshell. It calls the truth a lie, and then proceeds to explain how the lie can be reasonably believed . . . Today gnosticism appears as Humanism . . . Prior to the appearance of organised Humanism in 1931, however, the leading moral (or immoral) imperatives of gnosticism were at work mightily in the spirit of revolution that has gripped Christendom since before the French Revolution."

Most English dictionaries state of Humanism that it is a devotion to human interests and that a humanist is a student of human nature or human affairs; one versed in humanities. This sounds most worthy but as Humanism is today the essence of Socialism and has become part of "Christianity" it is perhaps necessary to recall the fact, impossible to deny, that many wars waged with ferocity have been waged in the name of Christianity. There is however, a tendency now within religious circles to conveniently forget this for Christian humanitarianism now represents itself as 'conscience' with all the trappings of 'sincerity'. There is thus a temptation to agree with Oscar Wilde, that it is style and not sincerity that matters.

The greatest tragedy which has confronted true Israel almost from its inception has been that " . . . the Church, an institution with an aim that is not of this world, but only in this world, sells itself as a 'social cause'. So it is hardly surprising if the result is not only empty moralism but also ludicrous theology." Today its stand on 'Human Rights' and 'Equality' — " . . . unless read in the spirit of some philosophical abstraction, is so manifestly false that it seldom attempts to translate itself from the language of slogans into a description of reality." What cannot be denied is that modern Christianity is an intensely individualistic, introspective religion with no concept of national identity which has enabled the conspiracy to work with it and in it with devastating results.

Race Mixing

It is within theological circles that of recent years the question of racial equality has received the most attention with ministers of religion making statements in the name of the Lord which have no substance whatsoever being based on a few verses of Scripture taken entirely out of context. No thought is given or research made as to whether the translations of the Bible which they use are in fact correct. They demand, both Catholic and Protestant, the infallibility of the Church and of their theology and unfortunately, the superstitions which were attached to the pagan priests of old and then to the church of Rome still exist with few taking the trouble to verify what is claimed by these so-called 'shepherds' in Israel.

As must be obvious the equality doctrine is humanism. A socialistic theory which today is being used against all races in order to break down racial pride and integrity. Yet, increasingly during 1981 and in particular in South Africa, the demand has grown — largely sponsored by the churches and well-meaning Christians — for the destruction of race in this country.

In 1949 'The Prohibition of Mixed Marriages Act' was promulgated which in Section 2 of the Act, forbade the legal marriage between people of diametrically opposite races such as Black and White. It has been said that it was unfortunate that the government of that time made this 'legal' by way of law and yet it is possible that, knowing the depths to which human nature can descend when not checked, it was believed that such a protection was necessary.

However, this refusal to allow the bastardization of the races is attacked by most churches as being 'un-christian' and the attack culminated in October last year with a report in the newsmedia that: "the Presbyterian Church of Southern Africa has decided to defy the law against mixed marriages . . . (it) . . . is believed to be the first church in South Africa to defy the Mixed Marriages Act by calling on clergymen to marry people of different races."

"Civil disobedience was high-lighted as an issue at the South African Council of Churches at Hammarskraal in 1979 . . ." and after the Presbyterian's stand in October the Methodists and the Lutherans were said to " . . . back the defiance call" even though it meant that any marriage officer would then be guilty of offence. The President of the Methodist Church, the Rev. Dr. Simon Gqubele said " . . . his church opposed apartheid and all the laws that went with it, and therefore endorsed the Presbyterian Church's resolution." And the Acting General Secretary of the Lutheran Church described the law as 'unfortunate' maintaining that: "Hundreds of people have suffered because of this law. Some have had to flee the country and others have even taken their lives.”

According to these ministers of religion “There is no way the law – (on the separation of the races) – can be justified from a Christian or human point of view . . .” While a Black liaison officer of the Anglican Church maintained: “. . . People were created in the image of God and marriage was a sacrament ordained by Him. THEREFORE, WHOM-EVER GOD WISHES TO JOIN TOGETHER, NO MAN SHOULD PUT ASUNDER. The church believes it should not deny anyone the opportunity to marry because of the colour of his or her skin.”

It was also claimed in this context of race, that the church has not struggled hard enough against oppression or with as much commitment as required by the Lord and the Bible and that “. . . if the law of the land, contradicted the Gospel, one should obey the teachings of the Gospel.” However, no mention was made of which Gospel and where the Lord and the Bible actually stated that race should be destroyed.

Not surprisingly, Calvin was mentioned in these reports for apparently he said people are subject to those who rule over them, but only in the law and that: “If they command anything that is against His Will, we must not pay the least attention to it.” Again it must be asked where in Scripture is His Will given approving mixed marriages and where is Divine Authority given to the church permitting it not only to ignore ‘race’ but to actually set itself up as capable of expressing the Will of the Almighty in this respect?

In the light of these theological statements it seems that once again words have changed their meaning and that ‘church’ and ‘God’ have become inter-changeable and yet as Amos 3:7 records: “Surely the Lord God will do nothing but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.” However, nowhere in Scripture can it be found WHERE HE HAS REVEALED HE WISHES PEOPLE OF DIFFERENT RACES TO INTERMARRY.

NOWHERE IN THE WRITINGS OF ANY OF THE PROPHETS DOES HE EXPRESS PLEASURE IN SUCH A UNION. NOR DOES HE AUTHORISE THE TRANSPOSITION OF THE LUST OF DEGENERATE PEOPLE INTO THE WISHES OF GOD. On the contrary – and although words have been changed and always supposing the church still accepts these – the Ten Commandments which it is hoped the church still accepts show very clearly what the Almighty demands. “THOU SHALT NOT COMMIT ADULTERY (Ex. 20:14) and in good old-fashioned English to adulterate anything means to mix, corrupt and debase by an admixture of baser ingredients. The modern explanation of adultery – sexual freedom – being covered in the Commandments by the words “thou shalt not covet – (desire)”.

However orthodoxy, with its doctrine of the “brotherhood of man” yet takes it upon itself to pronounce the Benediction of God on those determined on destroying their own race. This doctrine – now called Judeo Christianity – was begun sometime in the 3rd Century B.C. among the mixed population of Judaea who believed and taught that the differences in men could be eliminated if people were welded into a world-wide religion. Thus the Jewish Encyclopaedia could state: “. . . a new concept dawned in which they gained a greater insight into God’s purpose for them and they realised that the formerly exclusive national status in Israel was merely a stepping stone to the development of a great religious congregation under the priestly law in which all, irrespective of race, was welcome.” All that was required was that the person conform to the ritual of proselytism!

This concept was taken up in 1748 by Jesuit-trained Adam Weishaupt who devised a plan to further help with the overthrow of civilisation in order to establish the New World Order. This man actually constructed a machinery for revolution when he founded the Illuminati with initiates told that the great purpose was “to make of the human race, without any distinction of nation, or profession, one good and happy family.”

The equalitarian ideology of Socialism thus depends heavily on fictitious promises of a future Utopia. However, promises do not fill empty bellies, promises are no substitute for reality and are no safeguard against insecurity nor are they compensation for national stagnation – and yet promises are the peg upon which not only Christianity but Socialism hang and, in the context of Africa – now almost entirely “free” and with many Africans “christianised” — it was stated that: “The effect of unfulfilled promises of global strategies has been made more sharply felt in Africa than in any other continent of the world. Indeed, rather than result in an improvement in the economic situation of the continent, successive strategies have made the continent stagnate and become more susceptible than any other regions to the economic and social crisis suffered by the industrialised countries. Thus, Africa is unable to point to any significant growth rate or satisfactory index of general well-being in the last twenty years.”

This statement was released early last year and since then nothing has happened to alter the position. The main features should be noted again. Unfulfilled promises — new strategies — none of these have had any significance in Africa which is seen as ‘dying’ — even as it continues under the socialistic ideology which promised that ‘independence’ would bring in Utopia. Further, this is what the United Nations, Western politicians and Christian leaders want for South West Africa and South Africa — having achieved their goal in Rhodesia through the added manipulations of the British government. A government which — whether occupied by Labour or Conservative — is socialistic and under the control of world financiers.

Black Perspective

The truly tragic picture of Africa also falls within a mushrooming growth of population on the continent and in respect of knowledge concerning this it has been said that never before have so many people — even educated and supposedly sophisticated people — been so intellectually helpless, drowning, as it were, in a maelstrom of conflicting, confusing and cacophonous ideas. Indeed, “colliding visions rock man’s mental universe”. Is Africa to populate or not to populate? Is the demand for smaller population growth based on fact or fiction? Will a collision of an emerging Third World culture with the entrenched ideas and assumptions of industrial society alter the entire concept? What ever the answers it is more than obvious that the White Race itself has fallen for the ‘reduction of population thesis’ and inevitably, unless made aware of its actions — both its ‘smaller family’ concept and its apparent desire to basterize its own people — the White race could, unless there is Divine Intervention, destroy itself completely. While no doubt, the Black and Coloured races will continue to multiply.

However, it is not only the White Race — although admittedly this is the main target — which is considered expendable by the one-world internationalists. Obviously it is not their plan to have billions of people needing food and other necessities. So men such as Henry Kissinger teach that “managed starvation, disease and drought in combination with programmed ‘little wars’ and planned social chaos, can be sold as strategically vital...” It is thus possible that the present financial chaos throughout the world falls into what has been called the ‘Global 2000’ strategy and in this respect “foreign loans do expose a nation to the threat of starvation from banker-controlled food imports”. These loans can mean the bankers sending in troops from creditor nations to enforce payment. Bankers can also suspend the importation of all foodstuffs, thus starving a nation into submission. At present Western ‘aid’ heavily financed by the bankers to the Third World averages some R60 000 million a year but this is used either to repay national debts, simply disappears or only a very small portion of the remaining third ever reaches the population. Millions may be given but it is either never enough or it arrives far too late. Thus the increasing starvation in Africa. So, while they increase their birth-rate their mortality rate increases at the same time.

Meanwhile, from every quarter comes the demand that the Western world must give more and more to the less privileged and obviously the International Monetary Fund (I.M.F.) as well as the World Bank are in close touch with the "Global 2000" lobby. The World Bank has also required through its new 'energy facility' that all domestic subsidy programmes be cut. That all 'loans' go into oil, coal and other raw material extraction and the chief economist of the Bank of America actually stated that "... countries will have to take whatever projects are appropriate to them. If they can't afford heavy industry let them dig mines with picks and shovels. The free market approach means they will have to work with what they have got in hand."

This attitude may work in the Western World but the salient fact at present concerning Black Africa is that though the White people laboured to bring modern technology to Africa, the Blacks on their own have not been able to absorb it well enough to raise their own levels. Thus the next step has been obvious. The White race must be brought down to the level of the Blacks and nations or races as well as individuals reduced to the lowest common denominator.

It is not unusual of course for Washington to play host to an International Conference but in October and according to the Oregon Journal, the annual meeting of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund was something else again. In one place at one time the leaders of nearly all the world's central banks gathered and the first thing noticed was that all the delegates looked so distinguished — and so much alike!

"The most profound disillusionment lies in the discovery that there is essentially no difference in appearance between delegates from rich countries and delegates from poor countries. They all ride around in chauffeured limousines. They all look like they were born to live their lives in ornate halls and flag-draped conference rooms. Even poor countries have no reservations about spending scarce resources to keep their central bankers on a par with those of wealthy countries."

Much of the discussion concerned North and South America — not surprising in view of the critical situation in this area. However as reported, it was very hard to be swept away by the passionate rhetoric of the North-South dialogue. Throughout it all the impoverished, under-developed countries of the southern zones were making threats behind the scenes to the effect that the industrial North had better work out a new economic order, or else.

"Actually, that North-South dialogue is more like this: One group of men from the elite of one fair-skinned society sit opposite another group of men representing the elites of another, darker-skinned society. They make elegant, reasoned and ultimately irrelevant arguments. The masses in either case are uninvolved.

"It's all a very gentlemanly atmosphere, very clubby. After all, bankers are bankers. Fed. Chairman Paul Volker would probably feel more at home having brandy and cigars with the head of Cuba's central bank than he would with some of the new crop of Republicans in the American Senate.

"No matter whether a country espouses socialism or capitalism, banks are institutions of power. Like the police station and the church, the bank building itself is a landmark in the capital city of a developing country. As an occupation, banking itself confers status. Physicians have status because they can heal, and judges have it because their word is law. Bankers have it because they can say yes or no to a request for money. That's the secret power of bankers from the guy at the car loan desk all the way up to Mr. A.W. Clausen himself, president of the World Bank.

"Waiting for a loan to be approved can be a humbling experience. You sweat it out. The bank decides whether your affairs are 'in order'... whether you're a 'good risk'... whether your debt-to-income ratio is as it should be.

"The World Bank has the same relationship with entire countries. Granting or rejecting a country's loan application gives the bank the right to say who in the international community is a good citizen and who isn't.

"Getting turned down by the World Bank is usually a cause of consternation for a government. It amounts to a recognised voice of legitimacy telling the government that it doesn't measure up. It's the international superego.

"Just imagine what it was like for Robert S. McNamara during the last 13 years, while he served as president of the World Bank before turning over control in July to Clausen.

"To many of the 141 countries that are members of the World Bank, outside aid is the difference between subsistence and chaos. McNamara was superego with bucks. Anywhere in the world that he set foot he was courted, flattered and praised.

"Of course, nobody during that time was boorish or indiscreet enough to bring up anything about McNamara's previous incarnation as Secretary of Defence under President Lyndon B. Johnson.

"It is not overstating the case to say that McNamara was one of the key men responsible for the United States' involvement in the Vietnam War, with the resulting 50 000 deaths of U.S. servicemen along with untold hundreds of thousands of Vietnamese, Laotians and Cambodians who perished.

"A rule among the world's reigning elites is that nobody takes the rhetoric seriously. Those in the Third World who decried U.S. prosecution of the war had no trouble shifting gears to welcome McNamara as head of the World Bank. As U.S. Secretary of Defence, McNamara was anathema in the Third World. As head of the World Bank, he became a demi-god.

"The cruel irony is this. In aftermath of his participation in the policies that led to the Vietnam tragedy, Robert McNamara spent the next 13 years doing penance — first class airplane seats, diplomatic receptions, limousine rides and flattery from battalions of kowtowing officials.

"Clausen, who made his report on the World Bank, praised McNamara's work, calling him 'prodigiously active, innovative and productive'. Clausen said he would submit a proposal to the bank's directors to establish the 'McNamara Fellowships' to allow scholars in international development to study around the world. Delegates from the Third World applauded the announcement.

"McNamara's name will live on. The fellowship will associate him forever with high-minded endeavours."

It was the same McNamara who on October 2nd, 1979, in his capacity as chairman of the World Bank said: "Is an over-populated world inevitable? No, it is not. But there are only two ways of preventing a world with ten billion inhabitants. Either the birth rate drops or the rate of death will rise. There is no other way. There are, of course, many ways to make the death rate increase. In the thermo-nuclear age, war can take care of this very quickly and in a definite way. Famine and disease are the two oldest obstacles that nature has put in front of demographic growth, and neither has left the scene. In simple terms, we can say that excessive population growth is the main obstacle to economic and social progress of most developing countries."

President Nixon, a Rockefeller minion had also warned in 1969 that there was a danger of world over-population. He established a presidential Commission on "population growth" and the future of America. This Commission was headed by Laurence Rockefeller and according to New Solidarity the first report (1972) of this Commission called for the United States to commit itself to a zero population growth both at home and internationally. Fuel supplies were not "short" at this time, but it was stated even then that as energy supplies regulate population growth and as nuclear power was "potentially dangerous" to the environment this could not be considered as an answer to oil shortages. Other means of controlling the growth of population would have to be found.

It was during 1975 that the Cambodia Depopulation Project — "which would kill three-sevenths of that nation's population by 1977, was begun" and by 1976 the first warning of a possible world war was being made. Oil prices were still being kept artificially high, but now U.S. nuclear development was being attacked by the Carter Administration. The situation then began to develop rapidly until in 1979, the revolution in Iran backed and encouraged by the Carter Administration set the scene for further increases in the oil price. It was also in 1979 that America's Brzezinski spoke out against the "teeming Muslim population" and the United Nations' Food and Agriculture Organisation to the starving millions was urging the people to eat "bushmeat" — rats, worms, snails, grasshoppers, monkeys and snakes — to offset their hunger because "experts" had declared the protein value of such items the same as beef or poultry. Increasingly there were statements which in 1981 were still being made that the constant wars were "aggravating" the situation. The tendency of Black leaders to spend more and more on arms and less and less on their exhausted and dying lands was supposedly causing concern and in 1981, Zimbabwe had joined the list. The World Food Council estimated that 42 million people in Black Africa were suffering or would suffer from permanent, debilitating malnutrition — but strangely — the Blacks were still and still are over-populating at an alarming rate. Even in the Soviet Union alarm has been continually expressed over the rapid rate of growth among their Asian population.

The plans of control are however, extremely sophisticated with to date, only the White Race — because of its 'Christian' outlook and emotional sympathy coupled with a contrived guilt-complex — taken in by the "brainwashing" continually used by the controlled news media. The other races meanwhile unemotionally continue to grow and grow alarmingly. This will be exploited. Those at the top — the conspiracy — will simply use those at the bottom — the Coloured races — to destroy the White Race caught inbetween. For the envious and "have nots" and "can-nots" are never grateful for what they receive — they merely hate their benefactors. Thus they will willingly help to assure that the White Race is attacked, ridiculed and robbed even while as major tax-payers, the White Race is forced to support the plans of one-world conspiracy. So aid is now given without assessing whether it will be beneficial to the masses or whether it is given to leaders who perpetrate hunger. Liberty or freedom — modern style — never has and never will eliminate starvation although it will increase populations as Black Africa proves conclusively. Thus, “Our aid seems useful only to finance bloody tribal and ideological wars or . . . to line the pockets of corrupt officials — even as thousands die of starvation.” But — isn't this what it is all about? And isn't the Humanitarian ideology but another way of destroying the races? Change a nation's ‘cultural patterns’ and its genetic make-up and have demoralisation and total disorganisation. The rate of deterioration proportionate to the rate of integration.

Unless there is a new awareness of this fact — this will be the great tragedy of our times.

The Money Changers

WHO PAYS?

No backward glance at 1981 would be complete without recalling that it was in the same emotional, sympathetic framework of Christian “love” and “charity” that Jimmy Carter had four years before taken office as President of the United States, bursting onto the scene at a time when the American people were in a mood for definite change but Carter, like his predecessors, had also sold himself to men such as David Rockefeller, the money-changers in the United States. Hiding behind what has been called his ‘born again’ smile, Carter poured millions into the Black front-line states surrounding both Rhodesia and South Africa — money which was deliberately used to finance the communisation of Africa. This was in accord with the planned campaign of the financiers from the money capitals of the Western world. To remove freedom, create starvation and chaos and then establish economic slavery throughout the continent. The weapons used by terrorists may have been from China or the Soviet Union but the financing came from the West. “And the monster grows apace! Today it bestrides the world under the name of Bolshevism — (Communism, Socialism) but it is the same old monster, the heresies of the first centuries of the Christian era and the Middle Ages, namely — Gnosticism.”

Then after Carter, Ronald Reagan. Taking office at the beginning of 1981 he displayed tremendous charm and ability in keeping with his film star image. Now at last or so it was believed, something would be done somehow to stop the rot! Reagan promised a return to conservative policies, a new outlook with regard the Soviet Union; re-armament and financial stability. A day after he became President of the United States, the American hostages in Iran were released. If anyone was pleased over this event it was Jimmy Carter who, although he could have secured their release months before by unfreezing Iranian assets, believed that their stories of ill-treatment would stop Reagan carrying out his election promise to expose all the facts which had led up to the Iranian revolution. Facts which showed that during the sixties, and seventies, Rockefeller's Chase Manhattan Bank had made unexamined and unsecured loans available for non-existent works in Iran. Tens of millions of dollars were never used for the development programmes but are believed to have been taken over by the Shah's family with the Shah encouraged to raise the price of crude oil exported by Iran. However, the Shah had his own ideas and insisted on linking oil prices to the rising inflationary spiral and also opposing the Rockefeller-Carter policy of overthrowing the Rothschild-supported South African government. At all costs the Shah had to go — and go he did, but payment had to be made by someone and Carter was the "victim" although in reality it was the entire American nation which paid the price — a price which has not as yet been fully met.

From all accounts, Reagan was a Rothschild man — hence his supposed sympathy toward South Africa. Very clearly he showed that he did not agree with the existing U.S. Establishment policy-makers. He hit out at the Rockefeller's Trilateral Commission but in spite of this, he was soon embracing Trilateralist hit-man Kissinger and naming Trilateralist George Bush as Vice-President.

However, he seemed determined on doing something about the American economy and American Secretary of State, Haig, was soon bluntly accusing the Soviet Union of training, funding and equipping international terrorists which "fighting talk" immediately had the American State Department back-peddalling, maintaining that the word terrorism should have been 'national liberation movements' or 'armed struggle' as in trouble spots such as El Salvador.

Throughout 1981 the American — and Western economy — fluctuated and by October and according to the L.T. Patterson Strategy newsletter, it was being widely recognised that the President's economic programme to revitalise America's private sector economy would completely collapse without lower interest rates. What Americans were witnessing was an epic battle between the Rockefeller 'government' surrounding the President — and the President himself. Many developments in Washington were interpreted as part of an effort to support the collapsing market for government debt. Precious metals were under attack as well as real estate. The latter because it could throw off enough additional tax revenue to help support the debt market and make it impossible for people to own property. The restrictions on metals would mean the cancelling "...of the legalisation of ownership of gold". Already there were moves to prohibit Americans buying Kruger Rands coupled with demands on almost impossible employment standards for United States firms dealing in South Africa. Almost at the same time, the World Council of Churches ended dealings with three European banks because of their loans to this country.

DAVID ROCKEFELLER

Then the L.T. Patterson Strategy newsletter stated that: "...the best-kept secret in the hard money field is that there is a rather direct and supposedly easy answer to the weakness of gold after the death of Anwar Sadat of Egypt. The answer is immediately available: Russia has stepped up its regular deliveries to Zurich and London!" It was known that there were gold deliveries but that these were not enough to hold prices down. However, it became obvious that the Russian deliveries were running at a very heavy rate.

Writing of the world money-changers as well, author, Des Griffin, believes that when the International Bankers bring about the next great crash they will be playing for total stakes — total control of the world! "The stage is now set for this planned catastrophe — only the timing is not known. The results will make the Crash of 1929 look like a time of great prosperity.

"It takes little effort to visualise the astounding fortunes which will be made when the banks (controlled by the Internationalists) foreclose on the unpaid mortgages on millions of properties around the nation. That one move alone will leave 'that dark crew of financial pirates' in total control of most of the property in the United States" — and, following the exact same strategy, throughout the entire Western world! The complete control by International Socialism will finally be established.

Of this same situation the Don Bell Reports issue of July, 1981, remarked: "To bring this up-to-date, let us understand that the Gnostic-Illuminist based Grand Orient is the seat of the Paris-based Socialist International. Already, it has succeeded in establishing its "United States of Europe", whose parliament meets sometimes in Strasbourg, sometimes in Luxembourg, occasionally in Brussels. Thus they have succeeded in advancing from national socialism, (which exists in some form in every European nation) to international socialism as represented by the budding United States of Europe. In this connection Walter Lippman made an important contribution back in 1971. Lippman had been a member of Col. House's "The inquiry", a selected group which travelled to Paris in 1918 to help rearrange the post war world and install the League of Nations as a form of World Government, which they failed to do. Lippman also was a charter member of the Council on Foreign Relations (now closely linked to Trilateralism) and for half a century acted as a mouthpiece for the Eastern Establishment. In 1971 (we do not have the exact date) Lippman wrote in his column in The New York Times that in awaiting the establishment of world government — universal socialism will serve as its keystone.

"Of course, we know that the Gnostic-Illuminist-Oriented International Socialists have not been working alone. There has always been that essential assistance from the same quarter that also keeps Communism alive in the USSR and now in Red China, and which finances all the other Gnostic Systems, such as the World and National Councils of Churches, the "liberal theology" which is promoting terror and destruction in Central America, religion of Secular Humanism in government schools etc., etc. As for the Socialist Regional World Government that is being built in Europe, R.S. Ball recently wrote in Spearhead, an English publication: 'It should be evident... that the idea of a United Europe... did not suddenly spring into spontaneous existence at the end of the Second World War. Very influential people had been working on these themes in the 1920s and before. These people were from the leading banking circles of the United States, Britain, Germany and France; such as the Carnegies, Morgans, Warburgs and Rothschilds. The political circles were often opposed to each other across national boundaries, but they were united behind the scenes... As the former U.S. President, Franklin D. Roosevelt, has often been quoted as saying (and he was well qualified to know after all the deals he had arranged in his lifetime), 'In politics, nothing happens by accident'.'"

When Will It Be

It may be recalled too that at the beginning of last year — as with the year before — there were increased warnings that by 1982 or at the latest, 1984, world events would culminate in some shattering catastrophe. Even the one-world Club of Rome linked to the same conspiracy reported a "funereal tone" for the decade to come. This pall of pessimism was largely based on George Orwell's work, Nineteen Eighty-Four and on Henry Kissinger's earlier warning of the decline of the West, but unfortunately, many earnest people have also enjoyed putting dates to every event making possible a mass-hysteria which could well play into the hands of the conspiracy.

Significantly, in Isaiah 65:11 there are the words: "But ye are they that forsake the Lord, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that number." However, most scholars admit that this rendering is incorrect and that it should read, "But ye are they that forsake the Lord, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for Gad, and that furnish the drink-offering unto Meni"; with Gad referring to the sun-god while Meni designates the moon-divinity. The significance found in the fact that Meni was also called The Numberer.

According to Alexander Hislop in his work The Two Babylons: Kitto, vol. IV p66, end of note states that the name Gad evidently refers in the first instance, to the war-god for it signifies assault, but it also signifies the assembler; and under both ideas it is applicable to Nimrod, whose general character was that of the sun-god, for he was the first grand warrior; and, under the name Phoroneus, he was celebrated for having first gathered mankind into social communities.

"The name Meni, 'the numberer' on the other hand, seems just a synonym for the name of Cush or Chûs, which, while it signifies to cover or hide signifies also to count or number. The true proper meaning of the name 'Cush' is the numberer or Arithmetician for while Nimrod his son, as the mighty one, was the grand propagator of the Babylonian system of idolatry by force and power, he, as Hermes, was the real concoctor of that system, for he is said to have 'taught men the proper mode of approaching the deity with prayers and sacrifice'.

"Now Hermes (that is Cush) is said to have 'first discovered numbers, and the art of reckoning, geometry, and astronomy, the games of chess and hazard' . . . Hermes, in Egypt as the numberer was identified with the moon that numbers the months. He was called Lord of the Moon." Thus, it is necessary that great care be taken not to number or predict according to numbers or dates what the future may bring for Gnosticism from its inception has incorporated not only Jewish dogma, Greek and Roman philosophy but Hermes and Saturn to name but two of many pagan deities.

Today, 'numbers' in the form of giant computers join everyone together and, linked to banks, governments, businesses, education and even to the structure of the family, have tremendous control.

The present computer explosion is only one step toward an entirely new concept of society. Thus the electronic revolution suggests that reality will outstrip fiction "in the rate of introduction of new and often unexpected applications of electronics". People are already being numbered whether they are aware of it or not!

As 1981 progressed it seemed as though the Reagan Administration was counting the cost with regard to the previous American attitude which was opposed to South Africa. Increasingly the mineral resources of Southern Africa were coming into the picture and this was resulting in a more "sympathetic" attitude over the South West African situation. The shooting of Ronald Reagan had already taken place with many reasons for the attack given. In July, and together with other conservative journals, the L.T. Patterson Strategy newsletter was taking a long hard look at the first six months of Reagan's Administration and asking: "Where is the seat of American government? Who is in charge? Is it Ronald Reagan of the Republican Party — or Jimmy Carter of the Trilateral Party?"

"We are faced with the unbelievably embarrassing spectacle of world leaders by-passing Ronald Reagan — for a meeting in Plains, Georgia with Jimmy Carter! Both Menachim Begin and Anwar Sadat — still very much alive then — announced plans to visit the United States, not to visit Ronald Reagan, but to visit Jimmy Carter! The Subrosa control of the American government is clearly seen by the shocking developments. Ronald Reagan is a hostage to threats on the life of his wife and family and grandchildren. He has no freedom to move, and is forced to do what George Bush and James Baker expect him to do." The Trilaterals were in control of America. Reagan was however, still seen as possibly being tremendously useful to those who seek final world control — if he obeyed and heeded the warning already given. Thus, according to this report, Ronald Reagan could no longer be held accountable for his actions.

It is possible that from this strange situation the changed attitude of the American government toward the Soviet Union can be understood. At the beginning of his Administration, Reagan seemed intent on creating war only to change his attitude as the months went by. Certainly there must have been pressure somewhere and it is within this change that the following article by Dr. Otis B. Read, Jr. is presented.

NATIONAL EMERGENCY

by Dr. Otis B. Read, Jr.

'WORLD'S SPENDING ON MILITARY PUT AT $500 BILLION' captions an article in the Baltimore Sun, Saturday, September 6th, summing up a study made by U.S. British and Canadian arms control groups. (Quote) "The 1980 version of World Military and Social Expenditures, produced annually by a former U.S. arms-control official, Ruth Leger Sivard, said global military spending this year was up 10 percent over 1979 . . . world military spending increased faster than inflation for the eighth year in a row, the study said, living standards in general had declined . . . despite the critical need to develop new energy sources, governments this year were spending eight times as much for research on new weapons as on solving energy problems . . . the net effect . . . is to further undermine the already demonstrably fragile world economy, making it even more difficult in the future to meet the basic needs of a rapidly expanding global population . . . predicted annual arms spending of $600 billion a year during the 1980s not counting the effects of inflation . . . U.S. and Soviet Union have accounted for nearly 60 percent of the total since 1960, or 80 percent if their allies are included . . . two out of every three governments spent more to guard against military attack than against all the enemies of good health . . . now more than 50 000 nuclear weapons in the world, possessing in total more than a million times the destructive power of the U.S. atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima in 1945 . . . Moscow and Washington continue to spend more than $100 million a day to upgrade their nuclear arsenals." (End Quote)

'ARMY TO SHIFT 7 000 TO US', reports the Baltimore Sun for September 6th. (Quote) "The Army's top general announced yesterday that it is gradually shifting some 7 000 noncommissioned officers home from Europe and Korea and instituting a programme of longer and tougher training. General Edward C. Meyer, the Army chief of staff, said the officers are being shifted to overcome a shortage of their ranks in the United States. This reverses a policy of keeping units over strength in Western Europe and Korea. General Meyer said that in the 'long run', the move would improve the Army's combat ability . . . the general also outlined a variety of new approaches to the Army's deployment, including a new practice of keeping soldiers together in the same companies for a full three year enlistment rather than constantly replacing soldiers in their ranks." (End Quote)

We wonder if calling home these non-commissioned officers is not being done to prime the pump in our efforts to increase and train those shortly to be drafted into the armed forces? Our experiment with a 'volunteer army' fell far short of expectations, both in numbers and intellectual ability. However, there is a growing and organised opposition to the induction of America's youth into her armed forces. A chaplain at the Catholic University in the nation's capital recently stated: (Quote) "Conscientious objectors have never had a broader backing from American clergy than they do today. It is not yet clear what percentage of the estimated million young men who broke the law last month by failing to register for the draft did so because of moral arguments against warfare or how many simply adopted a 'laid back attitude'. An official of a national interdenominational counselling organisation said, 'refusal to serve in the armed forces of the United States is a lot more respectable than it was in the past'. Strong and wide support for conscientious objectors is no longer the special province of historically pacifist religious groups such as the Society of Friends (Quakers) but cuts across nearly all Catholic, Jewish and Protestant lines." (End Quote)

Trying to provide an orderly mobilization, Bernard D. Rostker, director of Selective Service, attempting to calm the troubled waters, says, (Quote) "What we are trying to do is provide an orderly mobilization if that becomes necessary... we want a mobilization that protects people's rights." (End Quote) Mr. Rostker says the new system will ensure fairness because all potential local draft board members will be trained the same way. Starting next spring, (Quote) "more than 8 500 will go to three day seminars in 80 locations to ensure that they understand the process of granting exceptions. Although the law says all males must register at age 18, it does provide exemptions once registration is complete." (End Quote) The Rev. Barry W. Lynn, director of a coalition of 55 organisations that oppose the draft and further registration, states: (Quote) "The Committee Against Registration and the Draft (CARD), will try to make changes from the grass-roots level. Nearly 400 groups made up of as many as 30 000 volunteers will attempt to persuade voters and government officials that further registration and other steps, such as classification, should be stopped." (End Quote)

America has been caught unprepared. The added confusion of an election year certainly does not simplify our problems, both within and without. Our moral and military weakness of the moment is not by chance. The places and positions of the greatest public influence in the areas of government, education and religion, have been captured by men whose personal ambitions have made them gullible to philosophies totally contradictory to truth. Ambiguous doctrines have been propagated as the "Message" from the Lord as set forth in the Holy Scriptures. We are today "a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding" in our midst. God in His Word likens us to "sheep" who have been led far astray by hireling shepherds. "Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter." The Word of God commands: "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins."

The House of Jacob Israel consists of the posterity of Jacob-Israel's 12 sons, mothered by 4 different wives. The so-called 'Jews' do not and cannot represent the seed of Jacob-Israel's 12 sons. Throughout the whole of the New Testament the term "Jew" (Greek 'Ioudaios' — Judean) has reference to those of a country, Judah, just as we who reside in this Republic are referred to as Americans. The Judaeans of Jesus' day were a mixture of the peoples of the Middle East who were settled within the former boundaries of the Southern Kingdom of Judah. The Edomites (descendants of Esau) were the aggressive strain, having gained control of the High Priesthood and Sanhedrin, the quislings of Caesar. These people rejected Jesus the Christ and His Message and supported their religio-political leaders in the crucifixion. Jesus sent His apostles to "the lost sheep of the house of Israel" separate and distinct from the Jews. It is written: "therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter (c.f. Luke 19:11-14): because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did that wherein I delighted not. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed: Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit. And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord God shall call his servants by another name" (Isa. 65:12-15). God never called Judah His servant. "Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant, and Israel whom I have chosen" (Isa. 44:1). In these times the "children of Israel" were TO HAVE A NEW NAME! Repeat — A NEW NAME!

"The armies of the Lord" was to be their role. They would have to be strong if they were to realise their inherited destiny of being Jehovah's intended blessing to all the other families of the earth. The Serpent's Seed would challenge them in every generation. Moses' mission back to Egypt where the Servant Seed were enduring their bondage was prefaced with the revelation: "But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments" (Ex. 7:1-5).

While en route to Sinai Jehovah's Servant Race were attacked by Amalek, their age-long enemies. This unprovoked attack was a challenge of Jehovah's Omnipotence. Israel's unpreparedness necessitated Jehovah's intervention and Moses was commanded: "Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven . . . For (marginal rendering) because the hand of Amalek is against the throne of the Lord, therefore the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation" (Ex. 17:14-16). A generation later, after Israel had been formulated into God's Earthly Kingdom and received His Commandments, Statutes and Judgments as the framework of His potential Utopian Society, Moses again reminds them: "Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt; How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God . . . thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it" (Deut. 25:17-19).

Israel's first national conscription was held immediately upon her becoming Jehovah's "kingdom of priests, and an holy nation." That which Jehovah had organised into His Kingdom here on earth must be made strong if it were to remain free and fulfil Its destiny amongst the other earthly societies which were subject to "the prince of this world". Jehovah commanded: "Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their polls; From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies" (Num. 1:2-3).

Israel never to be the aggressor. Although commanded to prepare for war, Jehovah forbid His Servant Race becoming the aggressor. Israel's destiny was that of being Jehovah's Agent, capable of defending the liberty and freedom extended to the citizens of His earthly Kingdom and an obstacle to the ambitious tyrants destined to arise from time to time. Israel was forbidden to multiply weapons of aggression, lest her leaders be tempted to lead the people forth in wars of conquest (Deut. 17:16). God also forbid His people to enter into defensive alliances with non-Israel nations. (Ex. 23:32) Because our Clergy have not upheld His Laws, we have transgressed all such laws and become a "reproach" in the eyes of all others.

Israel's spiritual condition dictates her strength. The defeat, or victory, of Israel's enemies is dependent upon Israel's spiritual condition. Jehovah promised "Five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword" (Lev. 26:8). The realisation of God's intended perfect Social Order was dependent upon Israel's national obedience to His Law. "Then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries. For mine Angel shall go before thee" (Ex. 23:22-23). Over and over in Israel's history, both ancient and modern, Jehovah has convincingly demonstrated His ability to defend and protect His Servant Race. "Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the Judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live . . . Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon him for? And what nation is there so great that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?" (Deut. 4:1-8) We have failed to heed this admonition, therefore, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest (Hebrew — law administrator, i.e. advocate of 'human rights', etc. the role our misguided President has sought to play) to me; seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame, etc." (Hos. 4:6-7). Today we are witnessing the literal fulfilment as these prophetic statements become history.

One of the greatest expositors of God's Law alive today and in his 90th year, Dr. Howard B. Rand, has written: (Quote) "The greatest army in the world with the finest of equipment, backed by an aerial force surpassing in striking power and numbers any combination that could be sent into the air against it, with an impregnable navy including all necessary auxiliaries and transports — all this might — backed by the military genius of a leadership which could not be matched or excelled in military tactics — would still be powerless to overcome His people if they had set their own house in order. For when Israel is in perfect spiritual relationship to Jehovah — enabling our spiritual leaders to declare with authority, 'Neither be ye terrified... for the Lord your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you' — no combination upon earth can defeat them." (End Quote)

The National Emergency facing us demands that we arm ourselves both materially and spiritually. The crisis of the ages is upon us. Our destiny demands that we become strong if we are to remain free and the aggression of God's enemies halted. The very roots of our national strength reach down into our homes and into those periods of family worship when God's Law is expounded by father — God's appointed authority. His Law governing every area of our society must be upheld and expounded.

"Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your hearts, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?"

"Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

"Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, where is their God?"

"Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people"

(Joel 2:12-18)

MEANWHILE —

The tragedy continued. The concept of a 'One World Government' was being realised as 1981 progressed. Poland was in an uproar and as with Afghanistan and the Persian Gulf, Moscow was claiming that whatever happened in these regions had nothing to do with the United States. That America's protests were merely a pretext to conceal its own "warlike or aggressive intentions".

Then there was Northern Ireland and the hunger-strikers, in prison because of despicable terrorist activities. Those who died did so because this is what they agreed to do in order to advance the cause of the iniquitous IRA which demanded their deaths in order to get world-wide publicity and sympathy, even though by now, it was becoming obvious that in the near future, the British government would seriously consider selling Northern Ireland Protestants out in order to meet the demands of world socialism.

Black cannot change his genetic inheritance simply by being transplanted into a different environment!

New Zealand and the South African Rugby Tour of that country also pin-pointed the control behind the unrest that was sweeping the Western World. In New Zealand as with Britain, dedicated communists had infiltrated the trade unions and labour movements. The Intelligence Digest Weekly Review reported on a communist pamphlet which, not surprisingly, maintained that: "Prime Minister

Britain itself — and in spite of the Royal Wedding — was going through a difficult time. June and July 1981, were marked by race riots and growing economic problems. Naturally the far-left ideologists, the emotionally involved and the clergy were refusing to accept that the riots were due to alien forces in Britain. They refused to accept that a

New Zealand has problems too!

Muldoon and his government are 'paper tigers' and the 'primary role of the police and the army is to defend the capitalist status quo. White racism is a vital weapon of capitalist oppression . . .' However, long before the violence which surrounded the Rugby Tour, Prime Minister Muldoon had commented on 'the increasing influence of communists in a few key unions which was reflected in the growing cost of disruption to the economy'. A number of the communists were said to have been born in Britain, although the majority were New Zealanders. In spite of their outcry over capitalism however this was as always, merely a sprat to catch a mackerel for communism was spawned by capitalism and has been supported by the money-changers ever since.

Pierre Trudeau

One of the greatest exponents of Communism in its guise of Socialism is Canada's Prime Minister, Pierre Trudeau, who like Lenin, apparently sees imperialism as a purely capitalist phenomenon which will be obliterated without too much effort. Again like Lenin, Trudeau believes that Socialism's aim should be 'not only to bring the nations closer together, but to integrate them'. By 1920, after the Soviet Union had been set up, Lenin 'regarded the drawing together of nations as an objective which . . . will finally and ultimately lead to the creation of a single world economy, regulated by . . . a common plan'. Obviously this is the ultimate industrial vision men such as Pierre Trudeau have as well and it is for this reason he is steadily working toward the destruction of Canada.

Australia has its own problem

This could also be the plan of Fraser of Australia who during 1981 — even as 'race' problems were growing in his own country — was having a great deal to say on matters which were not his concern. This interference mentality however, is the key to Western political outlook and all Western politicians as well as to men such as David Rockefeller of Chase Manhattan, Milton Katz of Ford Foundation and Carnegie Endowment, Russel Train, United States President of Wildlife Fund, Willy Brandt, ex-chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany and Paul G. Hoffman, a designer of the Marshall Plan. These men and others are all members of the Socialist International and steadily work toward the destruction of national sovereignty and the establishment of 'feudal regions' throughout the world.

It is perfectly true that the Bolsheviks took the science of 'social engineering' to Russia in 1917 in which the people of Russia became the victims of the old psychology — established many, many years before by the pagan priests of religion — in which their minds and lives were re-shaped until they lost their humanity. This was the pattern of events when religion dominated — it is the pattern religion still demands — but whether religious or political the same end for mankind is envisaged. So as 1981 drew to a close with talks between the United States and the Soviet Union; with growing unrest and defiance in all the Western nations; with South West Africa being prepared for what will be called a 'justified and honourable' hand-over; with reports of increasing internal problems in the Soviet Union, with Red China continuing to push its own basic communist philosophy and to work for the 'two Chinas' coming together it is well to note that at all times "Communists — and Capitalists — are prepared to negotiate about what is yours!"

Thus, what is inescapably clear, whatever one chooses to believe, civilisation is being altered fundamentally and as 1982 begins to run its course, battles will flare — terrorism will grow — struggles will intensify. Everything will be manipulated and infiltrated and world history will be changed. These towering facts set into perspective all that has been written so far, but the following article by a man who has experienced much will perhaps, more than anything else, show what Western civilisation is facing at this very moment in time.

FROM: S.O.S. — SHIP OF STATE

HOW THOUGHT CONTROL IS BEING USED TO DESTROY GOD'S PEOPLE

—Col. Gordon “Jack” Mohr, A.U.S. Ret.

During the Korean War, a new word was coined in the English language. It was called “Brainwashing”. The Chinese Communists had a better term for it, they called it “Mind Control”. This is what this message is all about for I have always believed that it was essential for people to know something about the methods used by our enemies, in order for us to combat them.

For a number of years now, Americans have seen a deliberate attack carried on against their Constitutional guarantees of “freedom of assembly, speech, press, religion, property rights, search and seizure and the right to keep and bear arms”. Most of these rights are easily recognisable. However, if any of these rights are destroyed, a deterioration process begins, which in the end will destroy all of them. If you allow my right to “keep and bear arms” to be destroyed, soon your right for “freedom and religion” will be gone.

The American Founding Fathers believed that these were inalienable rights. This means that they are “God given rights”, and such cannot be tampered with by government. It may be necessary for me to remind you however, that anything Government gives you, the same can be taken away by the same authority. This is why the Founding Fathers put such rigid restraints on the power of the Central Government.

The Collectivists realise this. Now in case you are not sure what a “collectivist” is, he is an individual who believes in involving all members of the group to the exclusion of individual rights. He is the person who always insists on the “one man, one vote” theory. He is the one who advocates: “From each according to his ability; to each according to his needs.”

One of the best practical examples of this took place at the University of Florida a few years ago. A Sociology professor I knew, told me about this incident. It seems as though there were many students in his class, who had been indoctrinated with Marxist ideas. They were constantly harping on this theory. So one day he decided to give them a first hand example of it in operation. He asked them to write a paper on this subject and assigned a considerable value to their final grade on the basis of what they wrote. One young Marxist, who was a brilliant girl, wrote a paper that showed a great deal of research. No doubt about it, it was an “A” effort. Another student, a well-known athlete, who was not known for his scholarly ability, turned in a page and a half, which was good for a failure. But the teacher assigned a grade of “C plus” to each student. The brilliant girl came to the professor in tears, saying: “There was a lot of effort in my paper. I should have got an A.” The professor agreed, but reasoned thus: “But you see Betty, Charlie, over there, isn’t as good a student as you. So I followed your theory and took away from you, who had the ability, and gave to Charlie, who had the need.” Needless to say, that idea wasn’t popular when put into application.

Now what I want to share with you in this article, are some thoughts which have been taken from my own experiences and from the Zionist-Communist textbook of PSYCHOPOLITICS.

I prefer not to be called an expert on this subject, since I have found that a person automatically becomes an expert when they get more than fifty miles away from home. So what we will do, is go directly to a Communist textbook, printed in 1933, and first taught to a handpicked group of American University students, at the Lenin School of Psycho-Political Warfare, the University of Moscow.

These 47 students had been carefully picked from the ranks of Communist youth in the United Bayard Rustin, paid organizer of Young Communist's League, conducts a class in agitation.

States and were sent to take this course, so they would be in a position to infiltrate American schools and bring about the chaos of the 1960s and 70s.

These young people, for the most part did not realise that they are pawns and the major target for an insidious plot to destroy the White Christian civilisation.

For you to understand the Communist meaning of Psychopolitics, I want to quote from the welcoming address of Laventria Beria, as given to these students. (If you will remember, Beria was head of the much feared K.G.B. under the dictatorship of Stalin.) He said: "Psychopolitics is an important if less known division of Geo-politics. It is less known, because it must necessarily deal with highly educated personnel — the top strata . . .

"By psychopolitics, our chief goals are effectively carried forward. These are to produce a maximum of chaos in the culture of the enemy. This is our first and most important step. Our fruits are grown in chaos, destruction, economic depression and scientific turmoil. At last, a weary populace can seek peace only in our offered Communist State.

"To achieve these goals you must work until every teacher of psychology unknowingly or knowingly teaches only Communist doctrine under the guise of psychology. You must labour until every doctor and psychiatrist is either a psycho-political operator or an unwitting assistant to our aims. You must labour until we have dominion over the minds and bodies of every important person in your nation.

"You must dominate as respected men, the fields of psychology and psychiatry. You must dominate the hospitals and universities.

"Psychopolitics is a solemn charge, for with it you can erase our enemies as insects. You can cripple the efficiency of our leaders by striking insanity into their families through the use of drugs.

"You can change their loyalties by psychopolitics. Given a short time with a psychopolitician, you can alter forever the loyalty of a soldier in our hands, or a statesman, or a leader in his own country, or you can destroy his mind . . ." (Did you realise that every important person in American Government has his own private psychologist? That they are in our school system, and in our military? Think about what Beria has said. He goes on:)

"Use the courts, use the judges, use the Constitution of the country . . . use its laws to further our ends. Do not stint in your labour in this direction. For when you succeed, you will discover that you can now effect your own legislation at will and you can . . . make the Capitalist himself, by his own appropriations, finance the larger portion of the Communist conquest of the nation." (Of course this is exactly what has happened.)

"By psychopolitics create chaos. Leave a nation leaderless. Kill your enemies and bring to earth through Communism, the greatest peace that men have ever known."

In 1934, this textbook was brought to the United States, where it was used to train Communist cadre. From May 2, 1936, until October 10, 1939, a young American named Kenneth Goff, attended this school at 113 East Wells Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. It was called the Eugene Debs Labour School. Operating under the alien John Keats Goff was trained in all phases of psychological and physical warfare, and was given the Communist plan for the destruction of White Christian civilisation.

In October 1939, Goff became disillusioned with the training he was receiving. He was intelligent enough to realise that he was being used and that Communism was not for the purpose of helping the common man, but to enslave him. He voluntarily appeared as a witness, before the House Committee on Un-American Activities, then chaired by the Conservative Representative, Martin Dies. His testimony can be found in Volume 9, of the 1939 Congressional Report. For his part in exposing this plan, he was hounded and threatened by the Communists, and by the agents of the Zionists, whom he exposed as part of the revolutionary conspiracy. He was finally poisoned, after many years of valiant effort.

During the period from 1948, to the present, I have watched with horror and outrage, and yes, increasing concern, as psychological warfare has been used against our people. It has come through the Zionist controlled media and television; it has infiltrated most of the churches, especially those affiliated with the National Council of Churches and completely controls America's Public Education System through the National Education Association.

I have seen American history completely distorted by the Marxist "mental child molesters" in our public schools. An example: A few years ago, I was in a Junior High School in Florida, waiting in the library to speak to the Principal, I picked up an Eighth Grade American History book. Being a Revolutionary War buff, I automatically turned to this period and read this statement: "Many stories about our American heroes are fables. Take the story of Paul Revere for instance. It has been proven that he could not have made his historic ride to warn of the British approach, since he was drunk in bed with a prostitute in Boston, when this should have been taking place."

As I watched with increasing concern, I saw psychopolitics in action, as it was crammed down the throats of the people via the newspapers and certainly in the so-called documentaries on television. In short, I saw the programme of Communist Psychopolitics, as it began its insidious invasion of our society. I knew it was designed to imprison and torture men and women of courage, who still preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the freedom it brings and who still believe that it is their duty to oppose this Satanic conspiracy.

Now in order to understand what is happening; in order to realise the dangers and build an adequate defence, we must know the truth. You see, we will not lose our freedoms on the day when our enemy with a tommy gun knocks at our door at 3 a.m. and hauls us away to a Concentration Camp. We will lose it when we see this subversion taking place in our schools, churches, and our government and we sit back, sigh and say: "I'm only an individual you know; everybody knows you can't buck City Hall." When enough people feel this way — then we will lose our freedom! Then we will hold a funeral service for her; we will haul her corpse out to the cemetery and bury her and over her grave we will erect a headstone with this sad epitaph: "Freedom died! Because people didn't want to be bothered!"

With this as an introduction, I would like to go over some important points of Communist "thought control" as they are taken directly from their textbook PSYCHOPOLITICS. The Communists tell us: "Basically, man is an animal. He is an animal which has been given a civilised veneer. He is a collective animal, grouped together for protection before the threat of his environment." It might be of interest here to see what the Jewish Talmud (their primary religious book) says about "non-Jews". In the volume of the "Kerithuth", (6b, p.78) we read: "Jews are called men, Christians are not men." In the "Orach Chaiim", (225, 10) Christians and animals are grouped for comparison. "Choschen Ham", (226, 1) Jews may keep lost property of a Christian, if found by a Jew. "Babha Kama", (113b) Jews are permitted to deceive Christians. "Babha Kama", (113a) Jews are allowed to lie to condemn a Christian. "Zohar", (1, 106a) Jews must always try and deceive Christians. "Hilkoth Akum" (X, 2) Never save a Christian from death. "Sanhedrin", (59a) Prying into Jews' laws earns the death penalty for a Gentile. "Zohar", (I, 25a) Christians must be destroyed as idolaters. "Abhodah Zarah", (26b) "Even the best of the Goyim should be killed". I could go on and on with similar quotations from this religious book which is taught in Modern Jewish synagogues and which supersedes the Torah (Laws of Moses). From this then it can be clearly seen, that the predominate element of Jewry in Communism, strongly affected the teaching that "man is an animal".

This of course is a direct repudiation of the Bible teaching found in Genesis 2:7 which states: "The Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and MAN BECAME A LIVING SOUL." This is what makes him different from the animals. The Communists reject this.

This is the principal reason human beings are not important in the Communist scheme of things. This can be clearly seen in their actions towards human beings in all areas under their control. On page 42 of the textbook, they make this significant statement: "The first thing to be degraded in any nation under conquest, must be the state of man himself. Nations with a high ethical tone are hard to conquer. Their loyalties are hard to shake... their spiritual integrity cannot be violated by duress (force). It is not efficient to attack a nation in such a frame of mind. It is the basic purpose of Psychopolitics to reduce the state of mind to a point where it can be ordered and then enslaved. Thus, the first target must be man himself. He must be degraded from a spiritual pattern to an animalistic reaction pattern. He must no longer think of himself, or his fellows, as capable of spiritual nobility or endurance."

Think about this statement for a moment. "He MUST be degraded to an animalistic reaction pattern." And I wonder how many of you have ever wondered why the Secular Humanists in our lands make such a fuss about the teaching of evolution in our schools? Is it that they are honest in wanting your children to have the truth? Do they want them to have both sides of the story, as they say about many other issues? Why would scientific men, take an unproven scientific theory and insist that it be crammed down the throats of the people, unless there was some ulterior motive for it? Why do they become so upset when someone says: "Let's tell them both sides of the story. Give them the Creation story too."

Re-read this Communist statement, then check out the names of those who are behind the forces that have brought this teaching into our schools. You will find them to be substantially from the same group that mans the "abortion clinics", which yearly murder over 1,5 million unborn babies. Check out the names and meditate a bit on this. I dare you! Then compare them with the ones who run the Banking establishment; who run the dope, liquor, prostitution, and pornography trade. See who it is who has been predominate in the betrayal of the West. Check the names!

How is this animal degradation brought about? So we go back to the textbook for our answer. "The best approach towards degradation in its first stages is the propaganda of the scientific approach to man. Man must be consistently demonstrated to be a mechanism without individuality. There were those, who in less enlightened times, gave man to believe that goals should be personally sought and held, and that, indeed, man's entire impulse towards higher things stemmed from freedom. But we must remember that the same peoples who embraced this philosophy, also continued in man the myth of a spiritual existence."

Isn't this what they have done to our education system. It is almost a "dirty" word to speak about personal responsibility in a modern school. A few years ago, I was lecturing on "abortion" at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. During the Question and Answer period, some of the young people were arguing that abortion was necessary to help keep the population in check. One strikingly pretty girl said: "If we can't have abortion and contraceptives, how can we keep the world from being overrun?" When I asked her if she had ever heard of something called "self-control" you would have thought from the crowd reaction that I had slapped her in the face.

Here is where the dirty work is being done among our youth. They are being taught an obvious falsehood, that there is no such thing as "sin"; that criminals or evil men are not to blame for their actions, that it is caused by their environment, and that aberrations such as "alcoholism" is not due to a weakness in man, but is a disease. When I asked one college professor if he had ever heard of any other disease which killed 30 000 people on America's highways alone every year, which was subsidised by the government, advertised in respectable newspapers and magazines, and often dispensed by Christians; he was amazed at my "narrow mindedness".

In 1930, three years before the book PSYCHOPOLITICS was written, Josef Stalin, the Communist dictator of the Soviet Union, published a detailed plan for the destruction of America. This information was published and passed on into the hands of all Communist District organisers in the United States and fell into the hands of our government. It was not made public for years. Listen to its most important parts:

2. ETHICAL: Corrupt morality by advocating promiscuity and advocating high school and college students to practise the same. Introduce companionate ideas; advocate legalised abortion; advance theoretical interracial practices — marriages of White women with coloured men; destroy the family; abolish inheritance; destroy records of family history." We see how this has been done in most of these areas. I do not have to tell you about the lowering moral standards, which have turned many of our institutions of higher learning into moral cesspools. You all know about legalised abortion, which is killing over 1,5 million unborn babies each year, most of them White. You all know how popular interracial marriage has become in recent years and we can see the results of all these subversions. Today, while the idea that "black is beautiful" is being promulgated in every school of higher learning, the opposite idea, "be proud that you are White", is looked on as "racial prejudice". Why? Because it is all part of the conspiracy to destroy White civilisation.

Now you may not want to accept this, especially if you have been brainwashed in some liberal church or school. But history proves, without a chance of refutation, that it has been the White race who has brought progress to the world; it was under White leadership that slavery was abolished. It has been White nations which have extended the helping hand to the world's needy. So don't let anyone give you a guilt complex, by telling you that your country is a greedy, imperialistic nation, because history has proven this false. Most of our troubles have come as a result of our allowing anti-God, anti-freedom aliens to bring their destructive philosophies into the country and spread them. We have been so afraid that we will step on someone's toes, that we have bent over backwards to be fair with our enemies, and we have dug our own grave while doing it. This was the enemy plan.

But back to Stalin and part 3 of his plan:

3. AESTHETIC: Cultivate the ugly and aberrant in art, literature, drama, music and architecture. And they have been successful in this. If you don't want to believe this, compare the blaring sounds of modern music, with that which was popular 50 years ago. Compare the bleak, ugly architecture of our modern buildings with the grace of other ages. Look at the filth which has come into drama; and the ugliness of modern art and then tell me they have not been successful.

4. SOCIOLOGY: Promote and exaggerate all social and economic conditions, political corruption, etc., so as to create unrest, suspicion and revolt by the workers — intensify the class warfare wherever possible. This has been one of the enemy's major areas of success for forty years. Year after year, we see our entire pattern of life, as it is disrupted by strikes and more strikes, protests and more protests. Not to help people; not to better their living conditions, but to control them.

5. INDUSTRIAL AND FINANCIAL: Create mistrust in banks by circulating rumours of their instability. Destroy ideals in craftsmanship and pride of workmanship. Standardise products which are shabby; advocate State monopoly of ownership; gradually withdraw gold from circulation. All things which have been successfully carried out to one degree or other in one or more Western country.

6. POLITICAL: Set up the ideal of thinking "internationally". (This is being done in the schools. Our children are being taught that their loyalty is not to their country, but to the world at large.) "Undermine national patriotism." PSYCHOPOLITICS says: "If we can kill the pride and patriotism of just one generation, we will have control of that country. (When Major General William Dean, America's highest ranking prisoner in the Korean War, returned through Pan' Mun jon in 1953, he was accompanied by a Chinese Lieutenant Colonel who was the major interrogator. The major had a PHD in Psychology from U.C.L.A. He told the General: "Don't feel bad about leaving us, for we will soon be in the United States." When General Dean asked him how they would accomplish this, he said: "We will destroy one generation of your youth and when we have done that, there will be no one to fight for you." (They have come a long way down the road to success in this area.) "Weaken all government departments by corruption. Create suspicion and distrust on every occasion. Ridicule all patriotic effort and undermine all preparations for defence. Carry out a policy for world revolution."

There is not much necessity of enlarging on this. Anyone who is at all knowledgeable, knows that a patriot is looked on today as being a "throw back" to some dark age of history. If you don't believe this, try getting on some "talk" show and see what they try and do to you. Recently, I was on a radio talk show and mentioned the danger of Zionist influence in our government in Washington. The moderator called me a "pornographer of paranoia". Think about that!

Now think about what we have just gone over together. Go back and read it again. All that has been advocated by the enemies of God has been in the process of being carried out, right under our noses. You have to be blind not to see this!

It is however not a new programme. It was advocated many years before the Zionist-Communist revolution in Russia. It was the power behind the throne, when it was advocated by the Jewish revolutionary Adam Weishaupt in Bavaria in 1776 and developed in an organisation called the "Luciferian Society", better known as the ILLUMINATI.

Adam Weishaupt - founder of Illuminati

Yet while the proof of conspiracy is there for everyone to see, intellectuals, lead by our religious leaders, have been the blindest in accepting it and it is beyond my comprehension to understand how any self-respecting man or woman can advocate friendly relations with the Soviet Union. Now I realise, that most of the Russian people are a great deal like us. They hate what is happening to them, but there is little they can do against the entrenched power of the Communists. But why do we continue to feed them when their crops are poor, when our leaders know that every ton of grain we sell them, releases other men to work in the factories which are turning out the war materials meant for our destruction. This idea of selling our enemies our technology, is treason of the worst sort, under the Constitutional definition given in Article III, Section 3 of the American Constitution. Here in language any Fifth Grader can understand, we have the definition of treason: "Levying war against them (the U.S.); adhering to their enemies; giving them AID AND COMFORT." And it is not only America which faces such treason!

In 1919 an interesting document, titled RULES FOR BRINGING ABOUT A REVOLUTION, was discovered in a Communist cell in Dusseldorf, Germany. Rule Two is of special interest to our youth, for speaking of them it said: "Get them interested in sex; get them away from God; get them interested in drugs; destroy their ruggedness." Now if you have ever worked with teenagers, you know that getting them interested in sex is no problem, since this is the age when the "juices of life begin to flow", and when boys become interested in girls, with designs other than to torment them. So the great effort at destroying our young people has centred in this area, using the other areas of drugs and alcohol, thus effectively neutralizing our most important generation.

The textbook PSYCHOPOLITICS puts it in these words: "In rearranging loyalties, we must have a command of their values . . . the loyalty of the human animal must be destroyed by making the family unit economically non-dependent, by lessening the value of marriage, by making an easiness of divorce and by raising the children, wherever possible by the State." A few years ago, the State Education system of Texas, had a First Grade teachers' handbook which was written by a liberal Jewish professor named Paul Brandwein. The first paragraph said: "Your first and most important task as a teacher, is to tear down the erroneous ideas which have been inculcated in the child's mind, in the home and church. Once you have done this, then you can begin to build the foundation of education, which will result in the international child of the future."

But let's go on with PSYCHOPOLITICS: "under the saccharine guise of assistance to them (our youth) rigorous child labour laws are the best means of denying the child any right in society. By refusing to let him earn; by forcing him into an unwanted dependence on a grudging parent. By making certain that the parent is never in other than economic stress, the child can be driven in his teens, into revolt. Delinquency will then ensue.

By making readily available drugs of various kinds; by giving the teenager alcohol; by praising his wildness; by stimulating him with sex literature and advertising to him or her, practices taught through Sex Education, the psychopolitical operator can create the necessary attitude of chaos, idleness and worthlessness, into which can be cast the perfect solution — Communism.

Then follows the statement, that all that is necessary to destroy a country is to gain control of one generation of youth, so they say: "Our continued propaganda MUST undermine the loyalty of the citizen in general, and of the TEENAGER IN PARTICULAR!"

This is exactly what they have striven for.

What is the end result of psychopolitical warfare? What have our enemies actually accomplished? For the answer, we need to go to page 16 of PSYCHOPOLITICS: "In any nation under conquest, such as America, our slow and steady approach need take advantage of the cycles of booms and depressions inherent in Capitalistic nations. The masses must be taught that only excessive taxation of the rich, will relieve them of the burdensome middle class, the bourgeoisie. Then they can be brought to accept the Marxist principle of the graduated income tax, which was smoothly slid into the Capitalistic frame- work of the United States in 1909, even though the basic laws of the country forbade it."

They were a bit off on the dates, but were correct on the effect of their plan. When the Income Tax was brought into being, along with the American Federal Reserve Board, which is not Federal at all, but is made up of International Bankers who have been the leeches which have sucked our economic blood for over 100 years, it began driving us towards totalitarian control. We have been on the economic slide ever since and will not get off until we have the courage and common sense to get rid of these leeches.

We have been indoctrinated by the "thought control" experts into accepting the Marxist principle: "From each according to his ability; to each according to his need." We have accepted it to the point where today, it takes two productive workers, to take care of one drone who would not work if he was given a job. Today, welfare relief is considered a "right" rather than a "privilege".

But the economic turmoil, as bad as it is — and there is much more in store for us in the immediate future — as bad as it is, it cannot be compared to the moral and spiritual disintegration which has eroded the "guts" of our people.

At one time it was "standard operating procedure" to have a virtue called "Righteous Indignation". This is the ability to see when things are wrong and the intestinal fortitude to do something about it. Unfortunately today, you can ask people about moral problems and get an answer something like this: "If you had asked me about that twenty years ago, I would have said it is wrong. But I don't know now, times change you know." This is utter stupidity, when you realise that "right" and "wrong" do not change any more than the laws of gravity.

This was brought home to me with striking force a few years ago, when I visited one of our great mid-west universities. In the Student Union, I picked up an attractive college magazine in full colour. There was a full-page ad. of a baby seal, covered with blood, lying on an ice floe. Below was an impassioned appeal to students and professors, to join an organisation for the preservation of baby seals in Newfoundland. I had nothing against this, since I like baby seals and would like to see them protected. But the utter hypocrisy of this college crowd was shown on the opposite page, where an ad. said: IF YOU HAVE AN UNWANTED PREGNANCY AND WANT TO GET RID OF IT, CALL THIS NUMBER . . . I thought: "My God, what has happened to our young people, when they cry tears over the death of a baby seal, and can't see anything wrong with the murder of 1,5 million unborn babies." I tell you, it's not natural for youth to feel that way. The entire blame for this shocking situation, must fall on the "mental molesters" of psychopolitics — MIND CONTROL!

Even more frightening to me, are the millions of "Christians" who have been neutralised by their own pastors into believing that all they need to do is hide in their spiritual foxhole, fold their holy hands in prayer, while God will handle the dirty work He gave them to do. They are told: "Don't worry! Jesus is coming back to rapture you out of this mess, before it gets too bad." I can tell you one thing, I wouldn't for any fame or fortune, stand in their shoes, when the day comes that they will have to stand before Almighty God and answer for what they have done.

Edmund Burke - 18th Century politician.

Many years ago, a very wise man named Edmund Burke said: "All that is necessary for evil to succeed, is for good men to do nothing." This could be brought closer to home by a statement that was made to me a few years ago by an old Indiana farmer, he said: "Son, one of the first things I learned when I began to farm, was that in order to be for corn, I had to be against weeds!" In like manner, there is no way you can be for Jesus Christ and refuse to take a stand against evil.

But what are the alternatives? Look with me once more at the textbook and see the Communist attitude towards brutality. If you can ever get through your head, the terrible hatred this Zionist-Communist crowd has for our people, then you will understand something about the terrible dangers we face.

In Chapter Six, we read: "Obedience is the result of force . . . concurrent with force is brutality . . . the more barbaric, unrestrained, brutal use of force, if carried far enough, invokes obedience. Savage force, sufficiently long displayed towards any individual, will bring about his concurrence with any principle or order."

You can see this in dealing with a mean dog, who will bite you if you try and pet him. Beat him long enough and the day will come, when though he lays his ears back, and snarls, and hates your guts, he will allow you to pet him. Why? Because, although his heart has not changed and he still hates you, he is afraid to disobey! That is why the Communists use terror and brutality.

They go on to explain their position: "Any organisation which has the spirit and courage to display inhumanity, savageness, brutality and an uncompromising lack of humanity will be obeyed . . . If you would have obedience, you must have no compromise. If you would have obedience, you must make it clearly understood that you will have no mercy. Man is an animal. He understands in the final analysis, only those things which a brute understands." It is true that one of our greatest barriers towards this understanding, is that we do not understand oriental thinking. It is steeped in the barbarism of the Asiatic mind and is completely contrary to what we have ingrained in us.

I first came into contact with this in Korea, in 1948 when I was assigned to work with the Provisional Military Advisory Group, training the infant Korean Army. As I learned to speak the language I began to try and understand the Korean people. This was not easy to do, since their philosophy of life was built on the "animalistic" concept. The majority of these people are "spirit worshippers". They believe that their lives are controlled by a host of evil spirits, who are constantly trying to make them miserable.

One day, while walking down the street of a little village, I passed a butcher shop, when I heard a terrible commotion coming from the rear of the shop. Stopping to investigate, I found two Koreans butchering a cow. They had her hung by her hind legs from a beam and were skinning her. Nothing unusual you say. Well this cow was alive! When I asked them why they were doing it like that, I was informed that the meat was no good if the cow was skinned after she was dead. Translate that kind of thinking into the human field, then take away any concepts of kindness, add a dash of Communist psychopolitics and you have the terror and brutality which is Communism, worldwide.

American P.O.W.'s murdered in Korea.

Then realise, that the average Westerner knows next to nothing about privation. I was raised during the Great Depression and I thought we were poor. But I didn't know the meaning of the word until I got overseas during World War II. It's difficult to realise that the very poorest of the poor in America, live better than 75 percent of the rest of the world. We have lived in a country which has provided at least a nominal amount of protection from fear, want, and brutality for so long that we cannot visualise what brutality really is.

This is the major reason that "fear" is the "number one" weapon of Communism. It is more powerful and effective than their strongest bombs and their long-range missiles. It has been used effectively in every country they have sought to control.

This fear is instilled from the very first moment of occupation by the installation of what is known as a "People's Court". It has been used in every country where Communism has been successful. It consists of a judge, a prosecuting attorney and the victim. There is no defence council, no jury. If you are a member of the "bourgeoisie", a property owner, you are eligible to be dragged before this court. You listen to the crimes you have committed against the State, you are not allowed to testify in your own behalf and you are dragged out and murdered in any manner the executioner sees fit.

These courts are set up for two reasons. First it is to terrorise the people in the community, so there will be no opposition. Secondly, they are used to eliminate anyone in the community who would normally exert a stabilising influence on that community. This means that all good leaders and their families are first to go, followed by the intelligentsia, often those who have helped the Communists into power.

If the West ever falls before Communism, and my personal belief is that God may very well use Communism to discipline us and get us back to Him, if this ever happens, the first to go, will be men like Billy Graham, Jerry Falwell and others, who have misinformed their people about who the enemy really was. I've been told: "You better watch out; your name is on their list!" I'm not afraid, because if they killed me, a lot of folks would say: "Old Jack Mohr must have been right. Look what they did to him!" That's not effective! So they go down and get the liberal preacher who has preached "Love and peace at any price!" They work him over and that "scares hell out of the people".

The purges in any Communist country are terrible, because they follow the virulent philosophy, that in order to control men, you must first brutalise them! I saw this Asiatic justice in operation in Korea in October 1948, when during an abortive Communist coup attempt against the government, a Communist force of some 4 000 rebel soldiers and civilians, took over the little city of Sun'chon and in ten days, brutally murdered over 3 800 men, women and children.

I doubt if anyone who reads this has ever seen a man impaled alive on a sharpened bamboo stake driven into the ground and while he takes hours to die, his young, pregnant wife is stripped and raped, over and over again in the city square, then chopped into pieces with bayonets.

How many of you have ever seen a baby taken from its mother's arms to be swung by its heels against a tree? How many of you have ever gone through the traumatic experience of seeing a tiny baby snatched from his mother's arms, then tossed back and forth between two men, caught on the tips of their bayonets; when the mother begins to scream, one smashes her in the mouth with his rifle butt and beats her to death as she lies on the ground at his feet?

Very few people have ever seen elderly Catholic nuns as they are crucified against the walls of their church, by bayonets driven through their hands and listen, hour after agonizing hour, as they scream, and cry and beg for mercy. I was standing in a window of the Presbyterian mission with a rifle in my hands while this went on less than a hundred yards away. I was praying to God, as to whether I should shoot them to put them out of their misery; I was afraid too, because we had seven American missionary women in the house with us, and we were afraid they would do the same to them.

Have any of you ever seen a young woman stripped, then nailed to the branch of a tree by spikes driven through her breasts, while a bundle of oil-soaked rice straw is bound between her bare thighs and set on fire? When I saw those things; when I had them practise on me for ten days, I said: "My God, if you get me out of this mess, and get me safely home to the people I love and the country I love, I will do my best, using my talents, my time, my money and my strength, to see that this never happens in America." Oh my friends, indeed I do get angry when I see how they are taking us down the same path. And we are somehow going to have to get it through our thick skulls, we are not going to be saved from "tribulation" or "slavery", merely because we are "White" or "Christian".

We will be saved when we realise that Almighty God will not even listen to our prayers until we repent of our evil deeds (Isa. 59:1,2). "Your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you, THAT HE WILL NOT HEAR!"

Listen to this prediction made by a Jewish Communist, the perennial head of the Communist Party, USA, a man named Gus Hall (Hallberg). He said at the funeral of another Communist: "I am going to live to see the day when 60 million, hopelessly diseased Capitalist animals are hauled off to the liquidation centres by the Commissars. I will live to see the last Congressman strangled with the guts of the last preacher. The Christians love to sing about the blood, so we will give them all the blood they want, as we cut the throats of their children and drag their bodies over their altar rails. May the parents drown in the blood of their own children." Was this an Asiatic, or an African who made this prediction? No, it was an American Communist Jew, who vented his terrible hatred with this threat.

When are we going to wake up? Our Ship of State is floundering. What are you doing to save her? Will you continue to support the bitterest enemies of Jesus Christ with your money and approval? What will you do someday, if they take over your country as they did in Russia? Will you be willing to fight on the day a government truck pulls up before your door and they take your boys and girls away to become robots of the State? It will be too late then!

Will you fight, when the anti-God, Asiatic hordes march through your city streets and forbid you to worship God? It will be too late then!

Will you fight on the day you see these barbarians rape your daughter, because they have been taught that she is "just a piece of meat!" It will be too late then!

Will you fight when they hang your wife by her heels, cut her intestines out and fill her body cavity with hot rocks, right before your eyes? It will be too late then!

So I challenge you. Especially those of you who claim to love God and your country. I dare you to go home and look at your children or grandchildren as they lie asleep. I ask you to remember that every good thing you have, came because God in His providential mercy, allowed you to be one of His people. Then I want you to remind yourself of a very important fact. These good things — these freedoms which you have, didn't happen by accident. They came, because men and women of courage were willing to pay a price for them. Remember, "Your freedom was not bought and paid for at Valley Forge; that was only the down payment." You can only remain free, as you are willing to make regular payments on the account.

Now I would like to challenge you to do something important. It won't be the easiest thing you have ever done, but it will make you a better man and woman. When you have thought about your children, I dare you to go to the closest mirror you can find; turn on the brightest light in the room and look yourself straight in the eye, if you dare to. Then ask yourself this question: "What have I done as an individual in the past year that would help my country remain free? What have I done to make her a better country? Have I fulfilled God's requirements for my life? Have I even attempted to keep His Law and tell others of it?"

If you can answer these questions honestly by saying: "Before God I've done my best", then God bless you! But if not, then make a pledge before God and your children, that with God's help, you will during the coming year, do all in your power to do something worthwhile for your own people. That in all things GOD may be glorified.

Quo Vadis

Services sent West, East, North and South – to the lands of God's Covenant People – drawing attention to the Biblical Charters which assure National Survival and Reconstruction on God-prescribed lines.

The God of our fathers GAVE A PERFECT CONSTITUTIONAL SYSTEM WHICH WAS KNOWN AS 'COMMANDMENTS, STATUTES AND JUDGMENTS'. THESE WERE VIOLATED AND OUR FOREBEARS PAID THE PRICE.

Statutes and Judgments...

FOR THIS IS YOUR WISDOM AND YOUR UNDERSTANDING IN THE SIGHT OF THE NATIONS, WHICH SHALL HEAR ALL THESE STATUTES, AND SAY, SURELY THIS GREAT NATION IS A WISE AND UNDERSTANDING PEOPLE.

We today ARE STILL PAYING THE PRICE WHY IS OUR ECONOMIC SYSTEM IN TATTERS? WHY IS OUR POLITICAL REPRESENTATION A FARCE? WHY IS 'HEALTH' ALMOST NON-EXISTENT? WHY ARE WE BECOMING THE 'TAIL' AMONG THE NATIONS? WHY HAVE WE LOST NATIONAL DIGNITY? THE ANSWER TO THESE QUESTIONS MUST BE FOUND AND IT IS THE CONTENTION OF THIS FEDERATION THAT IT LIES IN A NATIONAL RETURN TO THE LAW OF THE LORD.
